S. C. Meeting on Thursday. Ap. 30th at 5.15 p.m.

- ① The minutes were read and confirmed.
- ② Business Arising: a The Manciple, reported Miss Capon, was willing to provide cheese in lieu of fish sometimes, but not as a standing arrangement.

b Mr. Lyon, on Revision of the Constitution, stated that the complex nature of revision made it advisable to continue working on the old Constitution this session, subject to revision next session being understood. In cases of difficulty the President could use the powers of interpretation with which he was empowered. Agreed.

c The Principal had been active in gaining subscribers for "Wessex News," which was going well. Notices about the paper were to be circulated through Mr Parker and the O. Hartlegans.

d There were no further developments as yet in the matter of Lecture Summaries.

e Mr Symes stated that £10 had been spent approximately on loose covers, £30 on 6 new armchairs, leaving at the moment a balance of £10. Mr Kiddle had been asked to remove three old-fashioned settees. It was agreed that he be asked, as per understood agreement of last term, to undertake expenditure on furnishing the Common Rooms equal to that laid out by the Committee.

③ Correspondence. a Mr Kiddle stated that the Assembly Hall roof was in repair; wet might have entered by a ventilator. The matter it was agreed to leave as it was for the present.

b A letter from the Registrar requested dates to be furnished for compiling the 1936-7 Calendar. It was agreed that Faculty Society Secretaries should choose dates for their dances from a list to be given at the meeting of secretaries. These dates could then, in addition to those usually furnished, be sent in to the Registrar.

c The A.A.M. asked for a meeting in order to give a talk to students. Fixed for Tuesday, 19th May.

d. The Librarian stated that a decision of the Library Committee, ratified by the Senate, once more excluded cases from the Library. Miss Powell stated that exemptions from the rule at her discretion were obtainable by applying to her. On a suggestion from Miss Capon, the Secretary was instructed to inquire if it be possible to appoint a student representative to the Library Committee.

c. The N. V. T. announced that they were holding a meeting in College. The Secretary read a letter stating that no such meeting had been arranged, but offering 1.20 p.m. on the date mentioned.

4. Mr. Wickens reported on the Exeter Congress, "Man the Proper Study of Mankind," which had considered problems of the present day, chiefly

- ① The duties and responsibilities of citizenship.
- ② Relations between the states.

The first speaker emphasized the importance of students, for thought was, eventually, what governed affairs. The Bishop of Exeter spoke of the non-insular, international outlook of England.

Literature was issued as preparation to lectures given. (1) In "What is human nature," Dr. Richards, as an anthropologist, stated that primitive man was not pugnacious but peace-loving.

After an enjoyable and instructive tour of Exeter, a lecture followed by Prof. Jove, "Is Modern Man Incurrigible?" He saw civilisation today as lop-sided with learning ahead of wisdom. Only by trusting that man is reasonable can we put hope in the future. Speaking of man's emotions, he said that of nationalism must be geared up to that of internationalism. ③ Professor Glover ~~etc~~ desired more care in the mental training of children, eradicating and modifying the childish fears which otherwise remained in the grown man. ④ Professor Simon considered governments of democracy slow, or as acting before thinking. Respect must be created for intellectual solutions of affairs. ⑤ Dr Shaper on "Social Change", asked first what was man: an animal, what society?: the relation of men one with another: what social change? the change imposed by society on means of self expression. Middle-aged people must retain the free outlook of youth, and co-operate with youth in considering change, which should always tend to eliminate friction. ⑥ Harold Nicholson spoke of the imprecision of democratic diplomacy, democracies vague ideas of what L.N.U. meant or international co-operation. Diplomatic negotiations should be conducted in secret to construe treaties then to be considered openly by the governments.

⑧ Dr Lincoln Ralpho asserted that youth must have action as well as theorising. The danger was that people were too certain they were in the right. By realising our responsibilities we could clear the gloom of the present outlook. All speakers had stressed the value of reason, and we must hope for the age of reason.

Mr Wickens stated that about 120 attended the congress, mostly from London.

Mr. Wickens visited the Whiteway cider factory. He had enjoyed himself.

On the suggestion of Mr. Robertson the report was to be made available for students in the Library.

⑤ Six new notice-boards were ready near the S.C. office. The President, speaking of space allocation mentioned the difficulty of large notices taking up room on "Other Notices" boards. Mr Symes was for definite allocations of space. Mr Percy mentioned that no place was available at present for A.V. fixture lists. A suggestion from Miss Capon of a board at the Pavilion was not approved. <sup>Mr.</sup>Robertson proposed, seconded by Miss Foster that the board outside the Council Room be allocated for such use as the A. U. might deem fit. Miss Capon proposed, seconded by Miss Foster to set up a Committee of Allocation. It was chosen as follows:

Mr. Percy: prop: Mr. Robertson; sec: Miss Capon.
Miss Capon: prop: Mr. <sup>PLC</sup>Percy; sec: Mr. Robertson.
Mr. Robertson: prop: Miss West; sec: Mr. Wickens.

6- Visit of Pres. of N. U. S. The date was fixed for 1.20 p.m. Monday, May 18th. A non-Refectory lunch to be given to the visitor.

7 Elections. Nominations of Fac. Soc. <sup>may</sup> representatives to be handed in by Tuesday, ~~the~~ 5th. Elections 1 week after, followed by the election of Chairmen & Vice-Chairmen of Fac. Societies.

8 The date of the going down dinner was provisionally fixed for June 26th 1936, to be followed by a dance.

9 A. O. B. & Mr. Hodgkinson proposed, Miss Foster seconded, that Mr. Waller be appointed Asst. Secretary.

Carried

6, Mr. Sykes made known a 10% concession offered to students by Sims, Jewellers, of East Street.

c Mr. Cochrane informed Council of losses in the cash of the Council, and of "Wessex News." Mr Goss thought that better lock-and--key safeguards were necessary. Mr Dymes suggested a safe, but Mr. Cochrane thought a cupboard or some article with various locked compartments (to be allotted) was adequate. The matter to be gone into.

The meeting closed at 6.45 p.m.

Mr. Capon (Vice President.)
May 21st 1936.

S.C. Meeting on Thursday, 21st May, at 5.15 pm.

① The minutes were read and confirmed.

②. Business arising:

a) Mrs Capon said that the question of the revision of the Constitution could arise later in the meeting.

b) Student representation on Library Committee. Mr. Percy said that he had had a long talk with Miss Powell. Mrs Powell was strongly in favour of student representation, but deprecated any action on the part of the Students' Council at the moment for the following reasons:—

i. In the event of the Library Committee asking us why we wanted to be represented, we should have to make concrete suggestions.

ii. If our application were refused, it would establish a dangerous precedent (eg. for Representation on Halls of Residence Committee, etc).

Miss Powell suggested that the Council should keep in close contact with the Library & the Committee, and produce concrete suggestions. This would later give Council a definite case for representation. Any student who felt that books in any department were insufficient, should first approach the Head of the Department concerned, and then the library, if he did not get satisfaction. Mr. Cochrane asked that a notice be put up, calling the attention of students to the need for suggestions. Mr. Ruffell desired better means of keeping in touch with the workings of the Library Committee. Mr. Pearey replied that he hoped he would soon have minutes of all College Committees from the Registrar. Mr. Butler proposed that the policy of the Council for the present should be to make as many concrete proposals as possible, with a view to creating a firm basis for representation later.

This Foster seconded, and motion was carried.

- c) Mrs. Capon reported that the notice boards had been allocated to the various societies, and that elections were being proceeded with.
- d) The safe. The drawer with the money was now being kept locked. Mr. Kelaher expressed dissatisfaction re the numerous petty thefts, and it was decided to ask Mr. Taylor to do his utmost to help clear the matter up.
- e) In the absence of Mr. Symes, the report on the Common Rooms was left over.

③ Correspondence.

- a) A report had been sent to all members of N.U.S. from Sheffield S.V. It was decided to place it in the office to give all students a chance to see it.
- b) A letter was received from Miss Hunt, who <sup>had</sup> enclosed one from Mrs. Roberts, re Architectural journals. She offered to let the Common Room save the journals, provided they were returned. Council considered the library a more suitable place.

④ College Photograph.

Mr. Dickens suggested this should again be placed in the hands of Panora. June 9th & 11th were fixed as provincial dates.

⑤ Report of meeting of Mr. Ralpho.

Miss Capon gave the report. Mr. Ralpho said that the N. U.S. can only be as powerful as the individual universities & colleges. The machinery was there, and it was for the Colleges to state their problems, etc. The Travel Dept, which was contained a new section running camps in England, was the best in the country. Re vacation jobs, he suggested an Appointments Board in each college, but pointed out the difficulties of keeping in touch. N.U.S. had for a considerable time arranged exchanges & 'au pair'. N.U.S., emphasized Mr. Ralphs, was not a place for political discussion. Two points arose of special interest

- i. It was suggested that pictures could be borrowed <sup>for</sup> from the common rooms. The Secretary was instructed to make enquiries.

- ii. Mr. Ralphs offered to pass the Constitution on to the legal adviser of N.U.S. for criticism & advice. Council were in favour.

Mr. Ruffell raised the point of unemployment & health insurance. Miss Capon replied that this was dealt with in the Report of the Sheffield S.U.

6. A.O.B.

1. Mr. Cochrane protested about the use of the lawn mowers outside the Assembly Hall.

Miss Capon said she would see Mr. Mantelgao.

2. Mr. Ruffell enquired if Council had received any communications re lecture reform.

The Secretary replied that he had not, except. There was some discussion re lectures. Mr. Percy called attention to the valuable synopsis published for the W.E.A. lecturers.

It appeared that there was considerable divergence in the practices of the various Departments.

- ③ Mr. Kitcher drew attention to the deplorable condition of the cycle sheds. Council agreed that the Secretary or the President should see Mr. Kiddell.
- ④ Mr. Cochrane enquired whether the bells could not be rung to mark end of lectures. Mr. Kitcher informed Council that the whole ringing system was out of date, and that it was necessary to wait until the completion of the new Physics block.
- ⑤ Mr. Robertson hoped that the Repetory clock could be mended more quickly.
- ⑥ Mr. Life asked if more chairs could not be placed in the library. Although there was considerable room in the Seminar rooms, one never knew when there might be a lecture there, and in addition, they contained practically no books.

- ⑦ Mr. Cochrane said that the Engineers were in dire need of a mirror in their cloakroom. Council instructed Mr. Percy to ask Mr. Ford to look into this.

⑧. The Secretary reminded Council of the forthcoming elections.]

The meeting closed at 6.9. p.m.

Mr. Capon (Vice-President)
January 1936.

S. C. Meeting on Thursday, June 4th at 5.15 p.m.

- ①. Minutes were read, amended and confirmed.

in the library had been brought before the Finance Committee.

It might result in having ordinary tables etc. placed in the library. She also stated that when lectures were taking place in Seminar rooms, a <sup>notice</sup> ~~tab~~ was placed on the door to that effect.

② Correspondence.

Letters were received from Miss Foster, and Miss Belcher, Robertson, Life, & Ruffell apologising for their absence.

- ③. Council considered a suggestion, made by the President, that a tea should be arranged for the foreign students after the exams. Mr. Butler proposed, and Mr. Cochrane seconded, that in lieu of this, Council should invite all <sup>the</sup> foreign students to the Going Down Dinner. The motion was carried.

- ④. It was decided to refer the question of the Presidency of Union Societies, and the position of non-students who were elected as Presidents, (as in the case of the Choral Society) to the next meeting of the S.C., in order to <sup>have</sup> ~~gain~~ the President's ruling upon this point.
